WASHINGTON, D. C. April 6. Jessie Raymond returned from Atlanta to-day, and Senator Hill, of Georgia, is egain on the ragged edge. She appeared in open court to day and made sflidavit to the effect that Senstor Hill and one Small had bired her some time since to declare that she was averse to bringing suit against him; that she was at the point of starvation when she signed the paper, which was written at Hill's and strictly drawn. Small's dictations.

She reiterates all the charges originally made against Senator Hill, and the case will soon come to trial, Justice Cox having refused to dismiss it, on motion of Hi l's counsel. She had little Tommy in court with her, to the amazeme it of the spectators.

MENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 6. On motion of Senator Cockrell Mo.), the vote by which the bill to facilitate the negotiation of bills of lading and other commercial instruments, and to punish fraud therein, was indefinitely postponed yesterday, was reconsidered and the bill placed on the calendar.

After some important routine business the senate proceeded to consider the calendar. The unfinished business being the bill of Senator Maxey (Texas), to authorize a retired list of non-commissioned parties. The republicans went into officers of thirty years service.
